Dear Victoria:

Your letter was very welcome and I was so glad to hear from you and to know that you like the book. I shall long remember our lovely trip to Comralve and what fun we had.

In a little while I want to send a copy of the book to someone there. Do you think I should send it to the Mayor or to the nice young school teacher who was so kind to us? I shall send the book to you, and perhaps you would be kind enough to mail it from Matamoros.

You have never let me know what I owe you or someone else for all the work in mending my stockings. Please let me know so that I may send you whatever I owe you.

I wish I saw a trip to Mexico on the immediate horizon, but I am afraid that it may be some little time. However, don't forget that we are going to take a trip to "Hidden Corners of Mexico." What fun we can have.

This brings my best wishes with again my thanks for all the nice things you have said about RIO BRAVO.

Affectionately,

P.S. I hope your daughter and the baby are well.
