Dear Miss Gilpin,

Remember you sent me two of the portraits of Dean Kennedy. Several people have expressed a desire for one of them. But Miss Kennedy has asked me to turn them over to her.

The pictures you sent me are now in the possession of Miss Kennedy and she has asked me to tell you to send the bill, if there is one, to her. We didn't know whether they had already been paid for or not.

I have given your address to those who wanted one of the photographs.

Sincerely

Anna Martin
