Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am certainly happy to have your letter of December 27 and to learn that the prints have already gone to Ruth--I had not yet had an opportunity to check with her. Very soon we will all get together here with Ruth and confer on the various problems and possibilities.

We are looking forward eagerly to seeing the article from you, and also the letter about Jackson's article--which can, as you say, reach us a bit later.

Cordially,
