

EMILY RAMAGE Bookseller

29 October 1949

Dear Miss Gilpin:

Your book is going more than well. We did a window and had to take it out before the week was over, as the stock was practically exhausted. We are reordering, I think it is terrific and everybody agrees with me.

Thank you for your pictures. They made the window very effective. And I shall return them immediately. But first, will you sell any of the prints? I have had several calls for them. If so, please let us know the price.

If you come to Albuquerque do come by the shop. I plan to be in Santa Fe November 11 and shall call you.

Sincerely,

Emily Ramage
