Dear Miss Gilpin:

The picture of "La Conquistadora" and her squire arrived some days ago and now it hangs above my desk in a golden frame - or one that shines like gold. I am thoroughly pleased with it and admire the faithful reproduction of the coloring. It will go along with me in my travels, but if I should go overseas, I intend to leave it with Mother.

Again, many thanks, and also the best of the coming holy days. While I can't be home on Christmas Eve or New Year's, I'll try to make it in-between.

Sincerely,

J. Angelino
