The Book-of-the-Month Club,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Sirs:-

Because of absence from home and rushed days thereafter, I failed to return the slip on the November selection. This is entirely my fault. The book, together with the dividend have come, and I really do not want either one. I am returning them and ask you to charge me with the postage on my next bill for I do want the December selection. If I have a dividend coming I seem to remember that at one time you had a book on Household Repairs. I am not a bit strong for anthologies as I prefer an author complete. If the above mentioned book is a dividend book, I should like to have it.

Very truly yours,
