Mr. Joaquin Ortega,
University of New Mexico,
Albuquerque, N.M.

Dear Mr. Ortega:-

John Collier, Jr, came by a few days ago on his way to Albuquerque to take you his review of my RIO GRANDE. In the midst of much confusion and conversation, I read the manuscript once, and that very hurriedly, as he was anxious to be off.

First and foremost I am deeply pleased that you consider the book worthy of such an article, I do appreciate it. In re-reading the manuscript, I find several more errors and contradictions which I should like to see corrected. May I come down at your convenience to go over this with you?

For a long time I have been intending to send in my subscription to the Review. I always buy it, but why not subscribe? Hopin to have the pleasure of meeting you in the near future, I am

Very sincerely yours,
