Dear Miss Gilpin:

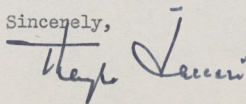

George Waters sent me a copy of his letter to you.

His business about the credit is just a formal way of saying that Kodak don't do it officially. If the proper occasion arises, they will be happy to do it.

On the business of sending pictures directly to George Waters, let me see them before you send them. After many years, I know what the chaps will bite at and what they won't. I want you to show them only very fine pictures so that whether they buy them or not, their regard for you will be a very high one.

We will talk it over during Christmas week. Believe me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Thayer Jaccaci", written over a horizontal line.
