My dear Miss Gilpin,

Your lovely photographs of Archbishop Lamy's Chapel arrived safely, and I know the friends for whom they are intended will be as pleased and delighted as I am.

One never arrives back home without someone having been forgotten, and I wonder if you would send me another print at your convenience. Not of the chapel, however. It is intended for the office of a medical friend, and I thought a landscape, such as the one Miss Stewart had in her studio -- I think it was of a canyon and the Rio Grande -- would be best. I shall leave the selection up to you, stipulating only that it be a landscape.

I enclose a cheque for $15.54 ($10.27 plus $5.27). However, should the third print be more, please let me know and I shall send you the difference immediately.

Sincerely yours,

Katharine Lurkey
