Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of May 18. I have no objection at all to your coming down to make changes in John Collier's article, but it would, perhaps, seem best that you first ask him for permission to do so. Kindly let me know, and I shall mail the manuscript to you, thus saving you the trouble of travelling here.

We appreciate very much your subscription. If you should be interested in securing the four issues published in the year 1949 which will complete the Guest Artist series, please let us know. Though back issues, we will bill them at regular subscription rate, making your own subscription retroactive to the Spring 1949 issue.

With all good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

J. Ortega, Editor
