Dear Miss Gilpin:

Charles Duell has just told me that you have added your blessing to the plan to concentrate Duell, Sloan and Pearce advertising in the Herald Tribune.

We were delighted to hear of this because -- as you probably know -- an advertisement for your book helped bring about the firm's decision.

So that you'll be sure to see every issue of our Book Review, I'm entering your name today for a complimentary one-year subscription. If you have already sent in a subscription, the new one will take the form of a one-year extension.

May all the ads for your books bring as good returns as that for The Rio Grande!

Cordially yours,

Willet Weeks
