

Feb. 23, 1951

Dear Miss Stinson:-

I have waited now over two weeks to hear from you about your proofs. Needless to say I was greatly surprised to see another portrait in the paper. What was the matter? If you were not satisfied with those I did, I would have done more for I always guarantee a satisfactory result.

Will you please bring the proofs back to me and tell me what was the matter?

Very truly yours,