Dear Miss Gilpin:

As I mentioned to you in my wire the other day, I am indeed sorry that the editors have decided to postpone the story on the Rio Grande.

Even though we did put you to some trouble, I want you to know that I definitely feel it was worthwhile to have made your acquaintance. It is not beyond the realm of possibility that we might get together on another story before too long. In the meantime, I think it might be a good idea if you would make yourself known to our string correspondent in Santa Fe. His name is Al Rosenfeld and he lives at 1111 Canyon Road. His telephone number is 3-4295. I can't promise a thing, of course, but it certainly wouldn't do any harm for him to know you.

There's no doubt in my mind, after looking over your color transparencies, that you have a remarkable feel for your countryside. I enjoyed looking at them and have taken the liberty of passing them on to our picture editor, Ray Mackland, so that he, too, can have an idea of the kind of work you do. I have asked him to return the pictures directly to you.

Again, many thanks for your interest and all your cooperation.

Best regards,

Norman P. Ross
