Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am sorry to tell you that numerous factors have necessitated our abandoning the idea of using a color photograph on the jacket of Erna Fergusson's New Mexico.

Under the circumstances, all I can suggest is that you send me a bill for whatever amount you think fair for the time you spent and any expenses you went to.

I want to tell you how sorry I am that things have worked out this way. Do you wish me to return your transparencies?

Sincerely yours,

for ALFRED A. KNOPF, Inc.
