Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of September 6 and the order for printing twenty^{one} of your old postcards and five new ones.

Cards of this type are printed by us in forms on which there is space for thirty subjects and on which we have to charge for this space. We are therefore holding your order in the belief that you will want to send us ~~five~~^{four} more subjects to include in the form when we go to press.

We look forward to hearing from you very shortly.

Very truly yours,

THE MERIDEN GRAVURE CO.
