Dear Laura

I am delighted with last year's cards, of course, but I am debating whether I shall use my mother's lovely picture for the same purpose this year. My uncertainty involves the fact that I have to do my own writing this year and I am not certain of my penmanship especially if my space is limited, because I write too coarse a hand. I will think it over and let you know within a week.

Coating the surface of my mother's picture is of coarse satisfactory to me.

Look for another letter next week about this year's order when I will enclose the twenty dollars.
