Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of May 8th. The card for the Museum Ceremonial Art showing the outside of the building is a very good reproduction of the transparency. The light blue on the roof shows in the transparency. This blue is probably a reflection which was picked up from the sky.

In reference to the two orders submitted with your letter, both transparencies are a little flat, especially the one of the reproduction of sand paintings.

If the cards are to be shipped directly to you, 25% of the c.o.d. amount is required with the order. If the cards are to be shipped directly to the Museum c.o.d., you should collect the deposit as listed on the price list.

We are holding the transparency awaiting your completed order and deposit. You failed to indicate the quantity you desire on these views. Be sure this is indicated on your order.

Very truly yours,

DEXTER PRESS, INC.
