Dear Mr. Baughman:-

Many unusual and some distressing things have happened in my life since your letter came regarding color transparencies. My apology for not at least writing to tell you something.

Here at last is a group of transparencies for your consideration. Should any of these be subjects of interest to your magazine, but of insufficient number to cover the subject adequately, I can easily fill out any of them as they are in my territory.

This is doubtless too late for your Christmas in New Mexico, but here is one color transparency which might interest you should this issue still be open.

All of these transparencies lack human interest. Unfortunately my Navaho material is at present tied up and I cannot release it just yet. But there may be something in this lot that might fit in to something you are planning.

Thank you very much for your enquiry, and hoping that you may find something here and if not I may have others for you in the future,

Very truly yours,
