Dear Miss Bekkedal:-

Please forgive my long delay in answering your letter. I was out on the reservation for some weeks where it is impossible to have mail forwarded, and since my return, the hectic rush of catching up always has me in a spin until I catch up again.

I quite understand the situation at the Arts Club. What I am doing is to try to finance my trip east by engagements to show the slides. Quite a number have already come in, all without my making any effort about it.

Now, in view of the fact that your club has twice asked me to have a show, it seems very little indeed for me to do, to say that it would be my distinct pleasure to show the color slides for your members. When I first wrote you about this, I did not know whether you sold tickets to non members, etc. for such programs.

So, if you and your committee would like to have me show the color slides as well as having the prints on the wall, I shall be most happy to do so. I am booked for Apr. 15th in Bryn Mawr, on the 18th at the Potomac School, somewhat later in N.Y. & Connecticut, and I hope three or four on my way east. I shall come on down to Washington from Bryn Mawr on the 16th, to be with you for the opening of the show.

With best wishes

DARLINE BEKKEDAL
