THE DEXTER PRESS, INC.
West Nyack, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Orsini:-

I am sorry that you have been ill and trust that you are completely recovered.

Mr. Lippincott, the new director of the Folk Art Museum, called me a day or two ago that he had a dummy on the foldout post card. I went over it with him, and I imagine that by now you have it back with his instructions. The photographs on the inside, scored for folding in this manner and the text on the outside. I shall be very interested to see this finished. It was a difficult subject first for the narrowness of the passage in which this display is located, and second mixed kinds of artificial light and matching two sections.

I hope that the post card, a single one, for the Brush Ranch is ready to ship. It must be just about two months since I sent it in.
On this small order, please send it by parcel post.
The season at this place is well under way and they are calling me every few days to know if the
