Dear Miss Gilpin:

The New Mexico Transporter, a trade paper representing the transportation industry in New Mexico, has asked our permission to use some of our color plates in a special anniversary issue they are publishing.

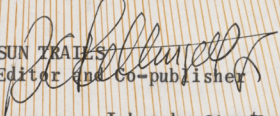

They have selected one of your color shots which appeared in a previous issue of Sun Trails as one of eight pictures they wish to run in their special anniversary issue.

Will you give your consent for second publication rights to your photograph to us so that we may make our plates available to this publication?

Due to the limited circulation and high cost of printing the color plates for this publication, it is impossible to offer more than $5.00 for the second publication rights for your photograph.

Please indicate your acceptance on the bottom of this letter and a check in the amount of $5.00 will be forwarded to you immediately.

Sincerely yours,

SUN TRAILS
Editor and Co-publisher

I hereby grant second publication right only to Sun Trails Magazine for the purpose outlined above for the sum of $5.00.
