

Berkeley, Calif. July 20th, 1957

Dear Miss Gilpin;

After a wonderful time at Navaho Mountain, where I stood just for a whole month, I travelled via Grand Canyon to Los Angeles and from there to Berkeley where I enjoy the San Francisco Bay and the treasures of the university's library.

During my stay at Navaho Mountain I distributed your wonderful photographs and I had the opportunity to meet all the people to whom you sent the pictures. Personally except John (?) Navaho. They were quite surprised and delighted by this gift, as far as Indians are able to express their feelings.

I remember often the days I spent in Santa Fe, the most attractive town I saw in the U.S.A. and I am very thankful that you kindly showed me your beautiful pictures from the Navaho and The Rio Grande.

With kind regards
Yours sincerely
H. Schubert
