RE: 1953 Income Tax

Dear Madam:

Upon receipt of your letter dated August 16 a thorough search of the files in this office was made, but we are unable to locate any return in your name. In order that we may identify your account, it will be appreciated if you will send a copy of our letter dated May 12, together with a copy of this letter, as we feel that this may help us identify your account.

We are very anxious to assist you in any way that we can and wish to assure that we will do everything that we can to locate your return and that we appreciate any additional information you can give us concerning it.

Very truly yours,

A. A. Tertipes, Chief
Returns Processing Branch
