

Dear Miss Gilpin:

I got your note tonight, so I am sending this out right away in order to catch you in Colorado Springs.

Yes, we do dress for dinner on Thursday nights. Some wear long dresses, and some wear the short dinner dresses.

I will try to get in touch with the Eliot O'Hara's, and the Bruce Moores so they can be there that night.

You said earlier in our correspondence that you were bringing your own projects. Do you want anyone to help you project the pictures or do you like to do it yourself? We can discuss that when you call me. My phone number here at the All States Hotel is National 8-2483 and ask for me. If I'm not in, you can leave a message and your phone number if you wish to.

Will be seeing you,

Darlene Bakkedal
