Dear Laura Gilpin:

I am very sorry about the mixup in the picture credit with our article on the Girl Scouts. It was apparently my fault and I am glad to know that you were not responsible for those very mediocre pictures which we used. We shall try to make clarification.

Incidentally, you probably received a claim in payment for those pictures. If you have and the check has not gone through, I believe the check should be turned over to Gillian Wethey. You could make out any arrangements you want to her with her.

You should have received your transparency by this time.

Sincerely,

Raymond Carlson
