My dear Miss Gilpin:

The folios of your photographs of Maya ruins were recently turned over to us by the Cranbrook Academy of Art owing to a change in their policies in relation to collections. We are, of course, glad to have them here. I am distressed, however, to find that a few of the photographs have discolored, owing apparently to faulty fixation. I wonder if these could be replaced. There are, I believe, not more than one dozen at fault.

I recall that some years ago when we corresponded you asked about the Hulberts. Both Judge and Mrs. Hulbert are still living though age is creeping up on them and they do not frequently get out of their home.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Hatt
