My dear Miss Gilpin:

Having lost a great many photographs myself through the use of rubber cement, I should have recognized the source of some of the troubles with your pictures. However, I am quite sure that some of those we have are not damaged, and I would not want you to be troubled replacing them.

There is no rush on replacement of these, and I just hope that you may drop by here, if near Detroit, and see us.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Hatt
