Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your prompt reply to my letter. We are delighted that you can include Mount Vernon in your series of lectures in this part of the country and shall look forward to having you on the afternoon of October 13.

We have several members of the faculty who operate our own slide machine and I am sure will be able to adapt themselves to yours, with a few minutes' instruction before the assembly. We have our own screen also.

We shall be expecting to hear from you when you reach Washington in October.

Sincerely yours,

Oliver Lloyd
