BRYN MAWR, PENNSYLVANIA

Dear Miss Gilpin,

Thank you very much indeed for telling us about your plans. We are delighted to think that you can come to Shipley on November 11. Since you are to be at Baldwin on November 9 and would like to start home without too great delay, I wonder whether you would not find it more convenient to come to us on Thursday, November 10. We can arrange that just as easily as Friday, the 11th. We will save both mornings for you but I shall assume that you will be here on Thursday, the 10th. I think an hour's talk from ten minutes past ten to ten minutes past eleven in the morning would fit into our morning schedule perfectly.

We are looking forward most happily to having you here. We should be most happy to have you spend the night of November 9 here with us at Shipley and as many nights afterwards as you would find convenient.

With all good wishes,

Most sincerely yours,

Margaret Bailey Speer
Headmistress
