Dear Miss Gilpin:

Your note of April 16th came and also your check for $5.00. We have sent the dummy of your Navaho book to Mr. Wilder as you asked us to, and the two portfolios and Paul Strand's book back to you. All of this material was sent express prepaid.

I am holding your contracts here because we might possibly want them later on for reference. I do hope so much that Mr. Wilder's interest will mean a chance for the book in the trade market.

Duell, Sloan & Pearce is now allied with Longmans Green and McKay and Ives Washburn on distribution and promotion. I think you ought to write directly to them about your Rio Grande book. And Walter Frese has not sent the second Navaho dummy back to us. So I think you will be wise to ask him to send it directly to you.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Squire Abbot
