Dear Laura,

We finally made it back to the USA and it all looks mighty good to us.

Europe was wonderful; it was very difficult to tear ourselves away. Each country was more wonderful than the previous but I think for ruggedness and friendliness Italy was hard to beat. I wish we could find a way of going over for a couple of years. If I was a good photographer I could probably make it pay, but guess I don't know how to market my stuff, even if it was good enough (some of it must be fair,???)

We are still waiting for a couple of books from you. My friend Mr Eckhardt asked me if you would send the Rio Grande book autographed ?

We are up to our necks in work and it hardly seems as if we had been away. We hope to see you this summer and hope we find you and Miss Foster in good health.

Margaret sends her best regards.

Very cordially,

Jimmie

What are you doing these days?
