Dear Miss Gilpin:

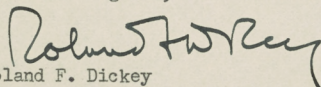

It has suddenly occurred to us that we have not sent you a complimentary copy of THE MISSIONS OF NEW MEXICO, 1776, by Eleanor Adams and Fray Angelico Chavez. You were very good to furnish photographs used in preparing the frontispiece for the book. If you have not seen the book, you will be interested in the crediting of your name on pages vii and xi. We have had many compliments on the handsomeness of the frontispiece.

The address which I am using is an old one---since I have not contacted you in a long while, and if you will confirm it by returning the attached card, I will send you a copy of the book which the authors will inscribe for you.

Please accept our apologies for not having sent you a copy immediately upon release of the book. Miss Adams left for Mexico almost the day the book came off press, and when she returned this last week we held a conference over any "unfinished business" on MISSIONS, and turned up the copy due you.

Please accept my gratitude for your contributions to the success of THE MISSIONS OF NEW MEXICO, 1776.

With best regards,

Roland F. Dickey
