California.

Dear Mr. Owings:-

Yesterday I mailed you a dozen copies of the brochure. I have been very much disturbed by this long delay. The little printer here got into a jamb with a broken down I.B.M. type setter with the result that he had been weeks behind with everything. I am very sorry, but all I could do was to keep hounding him every few days. On the whole I think the job looks well. Two of the pictures greyed out too much I am afraid but still are not too bad. The others look well, I think. And I am pleased with the reproduction of the map.

The envelopes were ordered some time ago and when I got the twelve yesterday, or rather Saturday, I found he had ordered manilla. I had expected white to match the brochure and I am sure that is what I ordered. These days one must put everything in writing! I am particularly pleased with the general appearance and hope that it will be satisfactory to you. With a higher priced job I could have insisted on two of the pictures, but I hope that this will serve your need.

Now, as to the envelopes, I will hold these manilla ones here until I hear from you. I think I had best hold all until I hear. Would you wire me if you wish both the folders and these manilla envelopes sent out to you, or shall I send the brochures only and you get envelopes in San Francisco? We can just cancel the envelope order or get the white ones as quickly as possible.

With every good wish to you both for a very merry Christmas

Sincerely yours,
