Dear Minor:-

That was nice of Jim Peck whatever it was!

My prints have just gone to New York this morning. They will be up at the American Museum of Natural History from Nov. 1 to Jan 4th. If they will ship them at once when they come down, you should get them by the 8th. Would that give you sufficient time? It is my hope that I can get on to New York right after Christmas. If this does materialize, I will be there and can see to it personally that they are shipped immediately.

I have sent them 95 prints. This is more than their gallery holds, I think, but it will give them a choice. At the last minute I pulled out five I wasn't satisfied with and will have them ready for you later. I shall be glad to send you 2 or 3 glossy prints whenever you are ready for them. And I will send the other material in a few days. A couple of jobs have to be done tomorrow and next day. What a life!

In the mean time my very best wishes to all of you
