

808 S. Foley Ave.
Champaign, Ill.
April 12, 1956

Dear Miss Gilpin,

This is just a brief note to let you know that I greatly enjoyed the opportunity to visit with you and renew acquaintances. I am also enclosing a snapshot of our girls - the one that I thought I had in my pocket last week. The picture was taken about two or three months ago. The one holding the book is Susan Edith who is now $3\frac{1}{2}$ years old. Ellen, with bangs, is now somewhat past $5\frac{1}{2}$ years, and presently sports a somewhat gaping smile having recently lost one of her upper front baby teeth.

At this writing the probability seems somewhat greater than 50% that we will all come out to Los Alamos for a few weeks in the late summer. If this happens I hope that it will be possible for me to present the rest of my family to you, and perhaps to have the opportunity to talk with you at greater length about the Southwest.

Sincerely yours,

Dillon Mapother

