Dear Miss Gilpin:

I understand from Miss Benecker that you are planning to be in New York sometime soon, in connection with your forthcoming book. I hope this reaches you beforehand so that I may extend to you an invitation to stop into my office while you are in the Museum.

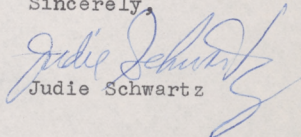

I am enclosing a copy of the release sent out with pictures at the time the Corner Gallery exhibit opened. We have had an excellent response -- photo page spreads and several columns in addition to the proof enclosed of an item that appeared through a syndicate in several dozen papers throughout the country. I'm sending this proof, and when you stop in you'll be able to see the full range of coverage the show received.

I am also returning several prints that were returned to us after use. I'm afraid the large one looks a bit the worse for wear, but perhaps you would like to have these anyway.

I've enjoyed working with your photographs, and I look forward to meeting you soon. Also, there is a possibility that one of the women's radio network people will want to do an interview with you, if it is convenient for all concerned.

Best wishes for a good holiday.

Sincerely,

Judie Schwartz
