Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter and shipment of June 18. We have selected 1 and return the others here enclosed. The 2 8x10's have a bit of a greenish overcast, and therefore they would be hard to sell.

The aspen scene is a subject which has been done so much before that we don't think we care to take another one at this time.

I am very sorry to hear that you had a difficult time, but I hope that your health is completely restored now.

Any time you have colors which you think might interest us, please send them along. We are looking forward to your visit to New York early next year.

With best regards,

Robert F. Shostal

RECEIPT and AGREEMENT

Received from Miss Laura Gilpin

Box 1173, Santa Fe, New Mexico

1 color transparencies, subject to the agreement stated below:

ROBERT and WALTER SHOSTAL

You agree that the color transparencies may be used for all purposes and in all countries. You certify that all persons depicted and recognizable in the pictures are covered by full model release which will be sent to us when needed. Our commission is forty percent. Sales report and check will be sent to you when we bill our customer. We endeavor to secure name credit for you, together with our syndicate, but we do not assume responsibility for errors or omissions by publisher. Unsold transparencies remain your property and may be recalled at any time. Because of prohibitive costs, it is not feasible for us to carry blanket insurance on our large stock of transparencies, or separate insurance on individual lots or shipments, either while on our premises or when sent out from time to time and delivered to others in the course of marketing efforts. We take ordinary care of transparencies while on our premises, and are not liable for loss or damage not due to our negligence. In sending out transparencies, we do so by Registered mail or express, and at the sole risk of the photographer while the transparencies are in transit or in the possession of potential customers, or in the course of return to us. If you desire to obtain insurance for your individual protection against loss of or damage to your transparencies, we shall be glad to assist you, if desired.
