Santa Fe, New Mexico

Dear Miss Gilpin:

The package of thirteen photographs of Navaho subjects arrived Tuesday in perfect condition. Every one is as beautiful as I remembered it. They will add immeasurably to the exhibition which will open on November 25th.

I am delighted to have your work included in the collection and their association with the Alfred I. Barton Southwest Textile Collection means that they are in distinguished company, quite fitting for Gilpin Photographs. Mr. Barton will be pleased indeed to see them.

Your pictures bring back recent memories of a very happy summer. After a hot muggy Florida day, I could wish for a breath of clear Santa Fe air and a mountain view.

Mrs. Aldridge joins me in very good wishes.

Cordially,

C. Clay Aldridge
