

Sept. 11, 1957.

Mr. C. Clay Aldridge,
Joe and Emily Lowe Art Gallery
University of Miami
Coral Gables, Florida.

Dear Mr. Aldridge:-

It is hard to realize that it is nearly three weeks ago that I wrote you that the photographs were being shipped the next week. Several things happened. First, I discovered that I had omitted some that you had ordered. Then I became involved with the final pictures for our Santa Fe Opera Association. Now the pictures really are ready and will go off to-morrow morning.

But what concerns me at the moment is that I have not heard from you regarding the color transparencies. If these are to be ready for you by October first, I must know immediately what size you wish so that I can have them made for you.

I am planning to get off on a Navaho trip on Saturday, so I am sending this air mail special delivery and will you be so good as to wire me your O.K. on having the transparencies made to 8x10 or whatever size you decide upon?

Trusting that this reaches you promptly and that all goes well. You have doubtless been away or I am sure that I would have heard from you by now.

Most sincerely yours,