Dear Mr. Shostal:-

Here are the five transparencies back. No luck. Sorry they were out so long. Also I include three more. An 8x10, just done. It was a commission. The customer chose the one she wanted and the enclosed is another transparency (I think the best of the 3 I made) and I have her permission to submit it. I hope it will be a readily saleable one. The other two you may or may not want.

Have been very busy on a lot of other work, chiefly black and white. At last we have had some snow and I will get out after new material soon.

Best wishes for a happy and good New Year,

Very truly yours,
