Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am quite happy that we can have your exhibition of Navaho prints for the month of December. I plan on having the opening Sunday, December 1, so if the prints reach me three days before that it will give me ample time to arrange the exhibition and get publicity to the newspapers. I have decided on the exhibition of 104 Navaho prints as I feel it will completely fill our gallery.

I am trying to find some way that we could manage to have you on the campus for your lecture and if anything develops I will, of course, write you or call you by long distance.

In the meantime, will you send me some biographical material that I can use for advanced publicity.

Sincerely,

Doel Reed
Chairman, Art Department
