Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am returning under separate cover the four black and white photographs you sent us. Please forgive the delay in returning them but we had had them in mind for the January issue which we only closed a week or so ago.

We all thought they were absolutely beautiful and we want to thank you for your complete cooperation. It was unfortunate that we were unable to use them however, we plan to use your work in the very next issue that requires your very special talent.

I hope you had a very happy Christmas and the best of everything in 1959.

Sincerely yours,

Barbara Cahill
