

January 23, 1958.

The Dexter Press,
West Nyack
New York.

Gentlemen:-

I have a re-order from the Museum of Navajo Ceremonial Art of this city for 3000 each of the seven different subjects we have made for them in past few years. I believe that you have the original transparencies. Will you please check and if not I will again go through my file. Everything will be the same as to text etc. Just a complete re-print on all the cards. Will you let me know what the deposit will be on these and I will send you a check for same. We want these in time for the coming summer season.

In addition to this order, I enclose herewith a single 4x5 transparency. of this we will want 9000 (nine thousand) cards. Trim sky to fit post card shape. The text for the face side will be as follows:-

The Santa Fe Opera Theatre, Santa Fe, N.M. presenting annual summer seasons of concerts and operas in repertory.

Color transparency by Laura Gilpin
Santa Fe, New Mexico

I trust that the above copy will fit the requirements.
Enclosed please find $90.00 on account of this single order.

Very truly yours,