Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you very much for your letter of November 5. We shall look forward to receiving your photographs and plan to have the exhibition up well before your arrival. Mrs. Wolle is doing the writeup for your lecture.

Why don't you plan to arrive in Boulder before lunch on the 19th and come directly to my office in the University Theatre, Room 201. I can then take you home for lunch with Mrs. Megrew and me. Your lecture is scheduled for the Green Room in the Theatre at 4:30 p.m. I shall have someone on hand well before lecture time to act as slide operator, so that all should run smoothly.

Unfortunately, that evening Mrs. Megrew and I are committed to a sorority house dinner. Muriel and Francis Wolle are most anxious to have you with them for dinner and then bring you up to our house whenever the party is over.

We are so looking forward to meeting you and having you with us.

Sincerely yours,

Alden F. Megrew
