Dear Lora:

I imagine that you have either been snowed under with work or you probably lost my address and, undoubtedly, that explains the fact that we have not received the pictures that you made of us at the time that Eliot, Fritzie and I were up at the young architect's house where you made the shots.

I did, indeed, enjoy visiting with you very much and I was greatly impressed with your splendid work. I don't know when I have ever been more impressed with a bunch of well composed pictures that really tell their own story and hold your eyes in enchantment.

Please give my regards to your friend, the nurse, and also to the young architect and his wife -

Very sincerely yours,

S. W. Scorse, M. D.
