Dear Miss Gilpin:

We have received your letter of June 28 with which you submitted an amended invoice for the two color prints which you made of our true and false exhibit.

You apparently meant to forward the invoice in duplicate, but inadvertently sent only the original copy. In order to make payment, we must have the original and one carbon copy. If you will forward us the carbon copy, we will immediately put the invoice through for payment.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edw. Davis
