Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am enclosing press proofs of two paintings of the Yeibichai Dance by Harrison Begay. One is from Mrs. Dietrich's collection, the other from the Philbrook, and at the moment I am ashamed to say I simply don't know which is which.

As the transparency taken at Mrs. Dietrich's is yours - and will be returned with your others very shortly - I thought perhaps you could identify it and return it.

The book is presently in the bindery, but copies should be forthcoming very soon now. We have seen a few hand-bound advance copies and our perhaps prejudiced opinion is that it looks superb. We hope that when you have received your complimentary copies that you will agree.

Yours sincerely,

Jonathan Bartlett
