

October 19
1960

Mr. Lawrence Sickman,
Nelson Gallery of Art,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Larry:-

Home again and much rush the first few days. A nice letter from Frank in which he nobly took the blame for my slide mishap. Very generous of him but wholly unwarranted as it was no ones fault but my very own. If I cannot remember why I was in Kansas City, I am a bit bewildered! As Bieber would say "Anno Domini". I have been too long in one place and not traveling enough.

Our trip was so very enjoyable, and it was such a pleasure to see you, Frank, Jim, and Mrs. Jones again, and to have at least a very short glimpse of your beautiful Museum.

One can see just so much in a short time and I assure you that I shall be back to gain a further knowledge of your treasure house. And I shall always remember your generous hospitality and the choice animals with whom I shared my room, particularly that wonderful pig.

I do hope that my participation in your Indian exhibit was worth while for the Museum. I was particularly appreciative of Frank's nice orientation with the proper colors of the Navaho Sacred Mountains.

With kindest regards to all, and again my thanks for all your hospitality,

Oct. 19
1960

The Nelson Gallery of Art,
Kansas City, Mo.

To

Expense acct traveling for Navaho slide exhibition

Car expenses	$48.17
Toll	6.70
Motel	11.50
	$66.37

Please deduct whatever the cost was for shipping my slides to Wichita.