

and myself. Again, I don't see any reason for this one choice. They were also going to display our books, Horgan's and mine, and these, too, went overboard with the photos.

Thanks, anyway, for your kind cooperation. I hope the NCCM paid you, or will pay you for your prints.

Hasta la vista

J. Angelico

Sunday Eve

Dear Miss Gilpin —

Our TV program came out fine this afternoon — except for your pictures, which were absent. They made large blow-ups to show, and then at the last rehearsal decided not to use them. Strange creatures, these TV folks. Anyway, they did keep one — La Conquistadora