Dear Miss Gilpin:

I received the transparency you promised me in the mail shortly after I returned to Gallup from Santa Fe.

I am now writing the story in short takes between interruptions--a distressing method to use.

We have been paying from $15 to $25 for use of transparencies, depending on their importance and whether they are from stock or shot on assignment.

I will know shortly just how many of the transparencies we will be using with the story. I have two pages on which I can run color in the space scheduled for the article. I recognize that there were some extra tasks involved in this particular assignment.

I hope you can make it to this year's Ceremonial. We may have the Totonac Voladores back as well as a contingent of Alaskan Indian dancers with very colorful costumes.

Cordially,

Edward S. Merry
